

Product name: ENDORFY Stoneflow Gray L
Product code: EY6B019

Moisture-resistant surface with a sleek stone-inspired design, precision-stitched edges, and a non-slip rubber base. It's everything you need for a high-quality mousepad made for precise and dynamic movements. The Stoneflow Gray L combines a refined terrazzo aesthetic with everyday practicality — making it ideal for work, study, and a well-curated desk setup.

Gray stone under your mouse

Looking to elevate your desk setup? The Stoneflow series is the upgrade you've been waiting for. The Gray variant brings a breath of fresh air, with a fabric surface that's fully optimized for both optical and laser sensors. Its subtle, terrazzo-style motif adds character without overpowering your workspace. And with a 450×400 mm surface, you'll have ample room for sweeping mouse movements — with space to spare for your keyboard and accessories.

Seamless (and durable) edge finish

We paid special attention to the Stoneflow Gray L's edges. The color-matched stitched hem enhances the visual flow of the design while reinforcing structural integrity. Unlike low-end mousepads that fray over time, this edge holds strong, preserving the pad's shape and look even under heavy daily use.

Locked in place — always

Whether you're mid-match or multitasking through a busy day, the Stoneflow Gray L doesn't budge. Its premium-grade gray rubber base anchors it firmly to your desk, so your mouse movements stay sharp, steady, and uninterrupted.

Resists moisture, stays clean

Hot days, sweaty palms, or the occasional drink spill — none of it fazes the Stoneflow Gray L. Its moisture-resistant surface repels liquid, and wipes clean with ease, so your workspace stays looking sharp and professional at all times.
